Lakewood Literary Competition

Any high school student currently enrolled and taking classes at LHS is invited to submit original creative writing in up to two of three categories. Student writing in poetry, short fiction, and narrative essay will be judged and awarded prize money thanks to the generous sponsorship of Cargill Protein, CarbonGreen Bioenergy, APEC, and the LEF. All entries should be polished drafts and must be submitted by the end of the school day on April 1st. Rules for submission are available in the high school media center, office, or any English classroom. Questions about sponsorship or entry can be directed to Mr. Keith Kadwell, English Department Chair.
High School Artists/Architects Dream Home Reveal

Students in Miss Oosterhouse’s art classes were challenged to design and construct their dream home with cardboard and other materials.

Their work is on display in the high school media center. Architectural styles from the clean lines of Frank Lloyd Wright to rustic farmhouse are artistically represented in our students' work. Creative talent, mathematics, architectural research, reading, planning, vision, and resourcefulness were infused into this project based student experience.

We are impressed with their work and with Miss Oosterhouse for providing deep learning opportunities through this hands-on, real life challenge.
All Things Senior:

Parents:
Have you seen the Senior packet?
A very important senior meeting was held on February 5th. At this meeting, seniors received a packet of information about local scholarships, Seniors Honors Night, departmental awards, a senior calendar, etc. There are also several forms in the packet that are required to be submitted to the Guidance Office.

Lakewood High School Scholarship Hub is Now LIVE, Apply On-Line!
At the Senior Meeting, we launched Lakewood High School's Scholarship Hub Webpage. Scholarships are an excellent way to help reduce the costs of higher education. Our generous community and local businesses offer a variety of scholarship opportunities to eligible Lakewood students. This site is designed for students, parents, teachers, and guidance counselors with information, submission dates, eligibility criteria, donors, and on-line scholarship applications.

We’re excited to launch a user-friendly application process that helps our students submit all of the required documents in order to be considered for scholarships. Parents, help us keep your senior focused and on track with submission deadlines. Check out available scholarships, criteria, submission deadlines, and learn more at: https://www.lakewoodps.org/site/default.asp x…
