

Do you know what Released Time Bible Class is?

Released Time—A Michigan law that requires public schools to release children, who have written parental permission, for up to two hours per week to attend religious instruction classes at a nearby location.

Bible—The oldest book in the world that millions of people still read every day! RBM Ministries is non-denominational in its teaching.

Class—Not just “fun and games”—but vital spiritual and character-building education in a happy, enjoyable setting.

History—We represent over 80 years of service to school-age children—one of America’s oldest Christian ministries, designed to reach and serve boys and girls of all ages, RBM Ministries serves many churches in your area. Please use the form below to enroll your child in a Released Time Bible Classes.
